

Caltrans District 9 Bicycle Guide

SR 14

Description:

State Route 14 becomes a conventional 2-lane highway just north of Mojave and a 4-lane divided highway through the California City Intersection to the top of Red Rock Canyon. SR 14 continues as a 2-lane conventional facility just past SR 178 (to Ridgecrest) and from there becomes a 4-lane divided expressway to its junction at US 395. The route features moderate grades with one particular sustained grade through Red Rock Canyon. Scenery is generally desert highland with some spectacular canyon vistas. SR 14 is closed to bicylists from the Avenue A interchange to the Rosamond Blvd. interchange (PM R0.00 to R3.18). An alternate route is provided along 20th W Street to the east of SR 14. Shoulders vary along this route between 4 and 10 feet.
